

The Liouville-Gelfand Problem

Jon Jacobsen

Department of Mathematics
Harvey Mudd College

Abstract

In this talk we discuss the history of the Liouville-Gelfand problem, a classic problem related to the existence of steady state solutions to a reaction-diffusion equation with an exponential reaction term. Recent related results for quasilinear and nonlinear equations will also be discussed.